

Marine Steward Witness Training

Marine mammal and fisheries stewardship is critical for the conservation and protection of marine ecosystems. Trained stewards play a vital role in monitoring, documenting, and promoting compliance with marine mammal and fisheries regulations and protected marine areas. This training program empowers participants with the knowledge and professional skills that will be foundational to their vital stewardship roles

Next Intake:

For More Information Please Contact: Monte Bromley; Monte.Bromley@dfo-mpo.gc.ca

Cell: 250-327-4622

4 Day training course in your community

Curriculum topics:

- ✓ Professionalism & how to become a credible witness
- ✓ Effective communication principles
- ✓ What is evidence?
- ✓ Understanding the Elements of an Offence
- ✓ Evidence documentation & management
- ✓ Professional practice using notebooks, tablets, cameras and preserving evidence
- ✓ Reporting violations and sharing evidence with GOC partners
- ✓ Being a witness in a court case / prosecution

Foundational Training for all Marine Stewards working on the water or anywhere in the field

