UCHUCKLESAHT TRIBE GOVERNMENT
APPLICATION OF LAWS TO FORESHORE ACT 30/2014
OFFICIAL CONSOLIDATION – CURRENT TO MARCH 27, 2025

PREAMBLE

The Uchucklesaht Tribe and British Columbia entered into an amended Uchucklesaht Tribe Foreshore Agreement. The Amended Foreshore Agreement expands the law making authority of the Uchucklesaht Tribe over Uchucklesaht foreshore and alters the enactment and enforcement process required by the former Foreshore Agreement to enact and enforce Uchucklesaht law applicable to Uchucklesaht foreshore.

It is the desire of the Uchucklesaht Tribe that there be certainty as to the applicability of existing Uchucklesaht law to Uchucklesaht foreshore. Certainty concerning the applicability of Uchucklesaht law to Uchucklesaht foreshore is desirable for transparent and accountable government processes and for the better governance of the Uchucklesaht Tribe.

The Uchucklesaht Tribe adopt this Act based on these values.
